

The FCC should not implement any privacy laws that lessen what is currently in place in the State of Indiana. Before this was put in place, I received literally dozens of sales and such nonsense calls daily. Since Indiana enacted the coverage, I have had zero calls. I do NOT need phone calls that waste my time and actually harass.